FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Housing Authority also recognizes the efforts of Brandi Liberty, an Iowa Tribal citizen and owner of The Luak Group and Morning Star Consulting, for her role in securing these grants. Liberty wrote all three successful grant applications, helping the Housing Authority secure this transformative funding. "We extend our gratitude to Brandi for her exceptional service to the Housing Authority and her commitment to the wellbeing of our Tribal members," Campbell added.

The Iowa Tribe Housing Authority thanks the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the Federal Home Loan Bank for their continued support of Tribal housing programs, which empower Tribal communities to create sustainable and impactful housing solutions.

About Iowa Tribe Housing Authority

The Iowa Tribe Housing Authority (ITHA) serves the Iowa Tribe of Kansas and Nebraska by developing, maintaining, and managing affordable housing. Focused on community development and housing security, ITHA works closely with tribal members and local partners to address housing needs and enhance the overall quality of life for its residents.
